2018 Victorian Employers Skills Survey

Grampians

Of the 13,600 employers that responded to Victorian Employer Skills Survey in 2018, 1,140 were located in the Grampians region. Employers report that skills are important to productivity, but many are facing challenges filling jobs and finding the right applicants with the right skills. These challenges are faced both now, and are expected to continue into the future. However, a high proportion of employers that access training to improve the skills of their workforce report a positive impact on productivity and return on investment.

The statistics below reflect the experience of employers from the Grampians region compared to the overall Victorian average.
