Red line plans of licensed premises

When a liquor licence or BYO permit is granted, it is for a defined area where liquor can be supplied or consumed. This is shown by a red line drawn on a plan of the premises. This red line plan needs to be submitted to Liquor Control Victoria (LCV) as part of the application process and may be required upon request at any time.

The plan of the premises must accompany applications for:

- a licence or BYO permit excluding a pre-retail licence.
- a variation of a licence or BYO permit that involves a change to the size or perimeter of the licensed premises.
- a transfer of a licence or BYO permit if the current floor layout of the premises differs from the plan held at LCV.
- the relocation of a licence or BYO permit.

Internal changes to premises

If a change is made to the internal area of licensed premises (for example, by adding or removing a particular structure), the licensee should submit an updated plan of the licensed premises.

LCV requesting a plan

In addition to the above, under section 130(1)(a) of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 an authorised person (such as an LCV Inspector or member of Victoria Police) may at any time request information relevant to the operations or the management of the premises. This may include a current plan of a licensed premises. You must comply with the request and produce the requested plan.

Plan format

A plan must contain the following elements:

- be on A4 size paper
- be drawn in a neat and legible manner (either electronically or by hand)
- have an arrow or compass pointing North
- include the premises address
- include the name of the surrounding streets/roads
- describe any non-permanent or temporary structures that outline your licensed area, such as cafe barriers, ropes or other fencing arrangements you may have
- outline the proposed licensed area/s in a continuous red line
- show measurements of licensed areas
- include the total floor space of the licensed areas in square metres
- show and describe the key fixtures, example; the bar, dining area, the cash register, kitchen area, dance floor, toilets etc.

Liquor Control Victoria

Plan format

An example of a plan for a venue supplying liquor on licensed premises

An example of a plan for a shop supplying packaged liquor

Restaurant and cafe licences and on-premises licences

If applying for kerbside trading, identify the area to be licensed and separately outline this area in on the plan. LCV will mark this area with an A.A on the approved copy of the plan. This area is referred to as the Authorised Area.

General licences

A general licence authorises the supply of liquor to patrons for consumption off the licensed premises, being a footpath or kerbside area. Therefore this area does not need to be identified on the plan.

Please note that licensees must comply with relevant local planning laws.

If the plan does not meet these requirements, the applicant will be required to resubmit the plan.

Storing an approved plan

A copy of the approved plan must be kept on the licensed premises and must be available for inspection on request by a member of Victoria Police or an LCV Inspector.

Failure to keep a copy of the plan on the licensed premises or produce a copy of the plan for inspection could result in a fine being issued.

If you do not have a copy of your approved plan, you can download a copy from the Liquor Portal at liquorportal.vcglr.vic.gov.au/liquorportal/. Creating an account is free.

Producer's licence

Victorian wineries, breweries, fermenters and distilleries produce some of the finest quality products in the world. In recognition of this and the important part they play in the state's tourism and hospitality industries, the Victorian Government has introduced changes to liquor licensing legislation to better suit the way these businesses operate.

To be eligible to hold this licence, it is a requirement that:

- where the product is wine, cider or brandy:
  - the licensee grows their own fruit and assumes financial risk for the production; or
  - the product is made under the licensee's direction from fruit grown in Australia by another person and the licensee assumes the financial risk for the production.
- where the product is beer:
  - the licensee brews their own beer or the beer has been brewed under the licensee's direction; and the licensee assumes the financial risk for its production.
- where the product is a spirit:
  - the licensee distils the spirit or it is distilled under the licensee's direction; and
  - the licensee assumes financial risk for its production.
- where the product is mead:
  - the licensee makes the product or it is made at the direction of the licensee; and
  - the licensee assumes financial risk for its production.
- where the product is sake:
  - the licensee brews the sake or it is brewed at the direction of the licensee; and
  - the licensee assumes the financial risk for its production.

Key points about a producer's licence

The licence authorises the supply of:

- the licensee's own product to any other licensee at any time and at any place (wholesale)
- the licensee's own product to the public from the licensed premises for both on and off-premises consumption
- any liquor, including the licensee's own product, from the licensed premises for on-premises consumption
- the licensee's own product to a person who makes an off-premises request (for example, orders by way of email, telephone, facsimile transmission, internet or other electronic communication)
- the licensee's own product from an additional retail premises for consumption away from the licensed premises.

Promotional event authorisation

Producer's licensees are able to apply for a promotional event authorisation on their licence. This allows producers to sell their product at as many farmers' markets, craft markets, festivals and other promotional events as they wish.

This does not include attendance at major events or horse racing events, for which a separate licence is required.

The restrictions that apply to the promotional event authorisation include, but are not limited to, the following:

- the licensee must keep a register of all events at which it has supplied its product and produce the register for inspection upon request by an authorised person

- the licensee must have the consent of the event organiser to supply liquor at the event
- any persons supplying liquor at a promotional event must have completed an approved Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) training program
- liquor may be supplied at a promotional event between the hours of 7am and 8pm.

Retail premises

Licensees may choose to specify an additional retail premises on their producer's licence. At this address, licensees are only permitted to sell their own product for consumption away from the premises.

If the product is wine, the retail premises must be the same wine region as the primary premises on the licence.

Wine regions and their boundaries are specified in the Register of Protected Geographical Indications and Other Terms kept by the Register under the Wine Australia Act 2013.
